Committee/Board/Commission Reports

1. Parks and Recreation Board- Vice-Mayor Nunley stated the fields are now ready for games to begin, and that repairs would need to be made to the grasshopper mower. Commissioner Crabtree made a motion to rebuild the motor on the grasshopper to cut down on cost, and this motion was seconded by Commissioner Atterton. All Commissioners voted yes. Motion carries.
2. Planning Commission- Mayor Hooper said the Planning Commission met on March 30th and they had discussed the requests of single wide trailers. The Planning Commission has discovered that R-1 and R-2 property zones cannot allow single-wide trailers to be put on the property. The Planning Commission would like to recommend that property zoned as MX-1 could allow single-wide trailers on review. The Planning Commission would like to request the Zoning Ordinance to be amended.
3. Neighborhood Nuisance Board- Mr. Mistrot spoke with the Commissioners on the property located at 400 Sequachee Drive occupied by Mr. Adam Kilgore. The City had this held before Judge Raines in City court, and Mr. Raines asked if Mr. Kilgore was following the City's Ordinance, and Mr. Kilgore advised that he was, but Mr. Mistrot has checked this residence, and found Mr. Kilgore has not complied with the City's Ordinance so Mr. Kilgore will be back in City Court on April 3rd, and could be charged $50.00 a day by Judge Raines, and also an injunction may be submitted.
